/PRNewswire/ --

Labcorp (NYSE: LH), a global leader of innovative and comprehensive laboratory services, today announced results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2024 and updated full-year guidance. Today Labcorp announced that it intends to implement a new holding company structure on May 17, 2024.

The name of the new holding company will be Labcorp Holdings Inc. The new parent company will replace Laboratory Corporation of America Holdings as the publicly-traded entity and Laboratory Corporation of America Holdings will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Labcorp Holdings Inc. The new parent's name is more closely aligned with the brand name, and the company will have a structure that is optimized to reflect the company's operations.

Common stock will continue to trade on the NYSE on an uninterrupted basis under the existing symbol "LH" and Laboratory Corporation of America stockholders will automatically become stockholders of Labcorp Holdings Inc. on a one-for-one basis with all of the same rights.
