News Release Vanguard Announces Share Splits for Five Equity Index ETFs PR Newswire VALLEY FORGE, Pa., March 24, 2026 VALLEY FORGE, Pa., March 24, 2026 PRNewswire Vanguard today announced plans to execute forward share splits for five equity index ETFs. The share splits will be effective on April 21, 2026 and are intended to widen availability for investors by keeping share prices within accessible trading ranges. Vanguard periodically and diligently assesses its ETF lineup to determine when and where share splits would most benefit investor outcomes. A number of factors are considered, including ETF market price, bid. ask spread, and trading volume. These five ETFs meet Vanguard's standards for executing a share split at this time. The following funds will undergo a share split. Vanguard Growth ETF (VUG) will be split 6.1 Vanguard Mega Cap Growth ETF (MGK) will be split 5.1 Vanguard SandP 500 Growth ETF (VOOG) will be split 6.1 Vanguard Mid.Cap ETF (VO) will be split 4.1 Vanguard Information Technology ETF (VGT) will be split 8.1 The record date for the splits will be April 17, 2026. The payable date will be April 20, 2026, after market close. All investors who own shares as of the close of trading on April 20, 2026 will have their shares included in the share split. The shares are expected to start trading at the new split-adjusted price beginning April 21, 2026, which would be considered the effective date. Investors will not be able to convert mutual fund shares to ETF shares on April 20 and 21. Importantly, forward share splits have no impact on the market value of an investor's holdings of the ETF nor do they trigger any tax consequences.
